wine and Pills are an energetic femoty in these complaints.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Joseph C. Paulding, dated Philadelphia, Sept. 7, 1852.

Dr. G. W. Halsey—Dear Sir, your Forest wine and Pills have cured my wife of a dreadful nervous disorder, with which she had been afflicted for many years. Her body was almost wasted away. She was frequently disturbed in her sleep by frightful dreams, awakening quite exhausted and covered with perspiration, and at times about to happen to her. By the use of four bottless of the wine, and a box of the pills, she is now in perfect health. She has regained her flesh and color, and enjoys society as well as ever.

The general failure of the worthy attempts of the medical faculty to cure this class of diseases heretofore, is greatly to be attributed to their reliance upon local remedies, aside from the want of a knowledge of the proper treatment for the general economy. Already, very many of the profession, having witnessed its salutary effects, have thrown aside their conventional prejudice, and are manifesting a due regard for the welfare of their patients, by recommending the use of this Medicine, and resorting to it themselves in the treatment of all the complaints for which it is intended.

The influence of this composition upon the female constitution is of the most friendly kind, the most delicate and feeble female need have no fears in its use for any length of time, for it contains no mercury, nor any Pepsin is the chief element or great digesting prine ple of the Gastric Juice—the solvent of the food, the purifying, preserving and stimulating agent of the stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the digestive stomach of the Ox, thus forming an artificial Digestive Fluid precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of thus preparation, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Phispepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy stomach. It is doing wonders for dispeptics, curing cases of debility. Emaciation, Nervous Decline and Dispeptic consumption, supposed to be ear the verge of the grave.
